Rev. A. Herald Guest Speaker
Rev. Alfred Herald will be the guest speaker at the First Baptist Church of Waveria Park and Newton streets, one block east of Hawthorne, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. His subject will be "A Pattern for Youth."
Rev. Herald is one of the staff of the California Temperance Federation, an agency through which the Christian forces of the state carry on a united temperance ministry. The Federation's program of alcohol-narcotic education is widely recognized by educational and civic leaders as a much needed service to youth. It was presented to nearly 30,000 Southern California youth in the public schools during the past year.

Christmas Concert At El Camino

Members of the El Camino college music department will present their annual Christmas concert December 13 at 8 p.m. in the Campus Center of the College, William Harless, director of instruction, announced today.
Entitled "Concert of Christmas Moods," the unique program will be a presentation of R. Vaughan Williams' cantata "Donna Nobis Pacem," Williams, a contemporary English composer, has become internationally revered in the musical world, according to R. Neil Hill, choral director of El Camino College.

Cardinal Holds Christmas Party

Thousands of needy Southland families and individuals will find Christmas a bit merrier this year as a result of the Cardinal's Christmas Party for Children Sunday, December 13, in the Embassy Room at the Ambassador Hotel.
All proceeds from the annual affair given by James Francis Cardinal McIntyre from 2 to 4:30 p.m., will go to the Catholic Welfare Bureau basket and gift program.

$100,000 BUILDING STARTED

On November 7 the members of the First Baptist church of Torrance began work on a two-story educational plant, according to Reverend C. Miles Northrup, pastor of the church.
The building will be constructed in three stages. The first stage will be completed in the spring. The pastor states that he expects the entire educational plant to be completed in 18 months at a cost of $100,000. The present facilities accommodate only about 500 while the new educational plant completed, there will be accommodation for between 900 to 1000. With the increase in the population of Torrance and the over-crowded conditions in the present Sunday school building, the pastor states that the new educational building is vital to the church and the community.
The pastor and the church family extend an invitation to the new people in Torrance who are looking for a church home. The church is located on the corner of Carson and Manuel streets, across from the high school.

NATIVITY PLANS TWO NEW WINGS

Plans have been completed and work is ready to start on two new sanctuary wings and a priests' sacristy and work room for Nativity Catholic church.

The great growth in the population of Torrance has also made itself felt in a great increase in membership. The present sanctuary is much too small now to accommodate the membership, it was stated, even though the church has seven separate services on Sundays.
The total cost of the project will be an estimated $55,000. Walt Wiitanen of 819 Amapola street, is the general contractor. This will increase the seating capacity from the present 360 to 600.
A campaign for funds is now under way. Most of the new stained glass windows have been donated already. The contract calls for substantial completion by April, 1954.
The larger of the two new wings will seat 220 people, while the other will be a sound-proof structure where mothers with babies may attend the service without distracting the preacher or the congregation.

'FIESTA' SATURDAY

The Mexican colony will hold open house and entertainment at their remodeled Pueblo social center, 2314 W. 203rd street, Saturday, December 12.
Popular Mexican dishes will be served from noon until 7 p.m.
A dance will follow from 7 to 11 p.m. with Tony Alvarez and his orchestra furnishing the music. Everybody is welcome.

Clothing Needs Told

Warm clothing is urgently needed to replace low stocks available for needy Southland families and individuals, it was reported by Albert Tassi, general manager of the St. Vincent de Paul Salvage Bureau.
Recent drives have not brought stocks up to quota, Tassi stated. Especially needed are suits, dresses, coats, sweaters, undergarments, shoes of all sizes for both adults and children.
Furniture, also, is on the needed list, Tassi said.
Householders who have missed recent drives can contribute old clothing and furniture today by calling TRINITY 8145, Los Angeles; TERMINAL 44533, Harbor area; POPLAR 6-2684, San Fernando Valley; SYCAMORE 3-9371, Pasadena area, or Long Beach 7-2330.
